- Decided by a joint awards committee of the SC Bar Foundation and SC ATJ Commission;
- Provides reasons for nominee to receive award;
- Presented at the SC Bar May House of Delegates' Meeting;
- Not necessarily awarded every year.

AWARD GUIDELINES DEADLINE:

April 10, 2017

The Ellen Hines Smith Award was established in 1989. It is given to a South Carolina Bar member who is employed as an LSC grantee program lawyer who has demonstrated long-term commitment to legal services and who has personally done significant work in extending legal services to the poor.

ELIGIBILITY AND CRITERIA

General criteria to be used in the selection of the award recipient include one or more of the following:

- Demonstrated dedication to the development and delivery of legal services to the poor through a Legal Services program;
- Quality and creativity in the delivery of legal services to the poor;

- Successful litigation that has benefited significant numbers of indigents or favorably affected the provision of other services to indigents or other innovative actions;
- Commitment to the goals of Legal Services;
- Other public service for the community or the Bar.

NOMINATION PROCESS

The nomination process is as follows:

- A completed nomination form submitted for each nominee
- In addition to the nomination form, each nomination must include:
 - at least one (1) but no more than five (5) letters in support of the nomination that include citations to reported cases and reference to organizing efforts, successful projects and newspaper or other articles
 - a current résumé or biography that includes work history with dates

If submitting a hard copy nomination: Submit the completed nomination form and supporting materials no later than April 10, 2017 to SCATJ Commission, PO Box 608, Columbia, SC 29202-0608.

If submitting by e-mail, the entire nomination including the nomination form and all supporting materials must be submitted electronically in one e-mail communication to rwheeler@sbar.org by April 10, 2017.

SELECTION PROCESS AND AWARD PRESENTATION

The Award winner will be decided by a joint awards committee of the South Carolina Bar Foundation and the South Carolina Access to Justice Commission after reviewing the nominations.

Decisions regarding the award recipient will be based on the above criteria or comparable achievements and the strength of the supporting letters.

The award will be presented during the House of Delegates' meeting in May 2017.

Previous award recipients are not eligible.
